Paying it forward

Smile at a stranger

Pay a friend a compliment

Call or text a friend

Make someone a cup of tea

Support your favourite charity

Volunteer to help someone

Make a handmade gift

Leave a positive review for a local business

Pick up some litter

The simplest way to define “pay it forward” is that when someone does something for you, instead of paying that person back directly, you pass it on to another person instead.

Poster and Poetry competition

~My Mental Health Poems~
Take care of yourself,
Take care of your Health.
Run out, walk out, don't sit inside.
Wash your hands, Stay safe!
Keep positive thoughts and every day play.
Cook your family dinner, bake a delicious cake.
Do some exercise, don't be afraid.
Do some art, play some darts.
Do a funny dance, imagine you're in France.
Read a book, take care of your looks.
You are not alone.
Chin up, smile happily and keep going.
Lockdown will be over soon,
To see your teachers and friends and you'll be shining over the moon.

Anti- Bullying Campaign

Disabled young people and those with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) are significantly more likely to experience bullying - including online bullying - than their peers. Children who have learning disabilities and autism are particularly at risk.
